INTEGRAL SPIRITUALITY

Contemporary, pioneering, universal insights and exercises

by

TERRY PATTEN

Top trainer at Ken Wilber's Integral Institute and co-author of Integral Life Practice

"No one is smart enough to be wrong all the time!"

Ken Wilber

Every world religion, spiritual movement and even every atheist vision contains some element of the truth that is, in effect, unspeakable. A religious leader once said to his students: "If I point to the moon, then look at the moon and not at my finger!" Alas, we too often mistake the finger for the absolute truth and get bogged down in our aversion to those who disagree and our glorification of Being Right. Whereas the experience of our deeper 'self'—at which the finger is pointing—actually brings out the antidote: a wisdom that kindles love and understanding for all beings.

Although the media daily treats us to war, violence, racism and fear of others, one can, on another level, perceive a shift. This is the first time in history that we have access to all possible religions, spiritual schools and personal development trainings. A growing segment of the population is aware of its responsibility with respect to the earth and the future of humanity as a whole. These people are seeking the elements which bind us, not those which separate us. They are seeking dialogue; a dialogue that can take place on multiple levels. They are seeking the 'Integral Heart.'

Without a doubt, the Integral Institute's Integral Spirituality programs provide a state of the art opportunity to clarify and empower this quest and to make it effective in the various dimensions of our existence, whether in our inner reflections, in our explorations within relationships, in our daily work or in great visionary moves in organisations and politics.

Trainingscentrum KenKon seeks to explore and chart the universal and binding aspects of spirituality in and between religions and cultures. We want to do this using, among others, the framework of Integral Spirituality as formulated by Ken Wilber. Recently, KenKon organised a seminar from this perspective with Diane Musho Hamilton and subsequently one with Terry Patten. Now we want to give another powerful and open impulse with an 'Integral Spirituality, one step further' seminar on June 20 - 22 2008, with Terry Patten, one of the Integral Institute's top trainers. During this training in integral spirituality, Terry will bring into focus Ken Wilber's vision of universal and binding aspects of various movements and schools of thought. A unifying theme for Terry in all of this is his vision of what he calls the 'Integral Heart.' The training will include meditative exercises, experiential insights, clarifying views and warm-hearted exchanges.

All of this will happen in an atmosphere of coming together for dialogue. Everyone who wants an inspiring impulse for personal development, commitment to the world and giving meaning to life is invited to take part in this weekend. We extend a special invitation to people from all schools of thought: from sober-minded atheists to enthusiastic Muslims, from touchy scientists to devout Christians, from Buddhist yogis to transpersonal psychologists.

The program consists of a number of modules which highlight various dimensions of our personal and collective development.
